

Vowel Group 5 Real Word Story

The bird, a stork from the marsh, did perch on the birch tree in the yard and dart in a blur. The chirp of the stork was stark and did blurt forth in short bursts. I sat on the porch next to the barn with a smart and sharp girl, Barb, who can be stern but has much charm. Barb had on a scarf with pearls and a dark skirt. I had on a torn shirt. We did flirt a bit. A dog did bark and snarl and a cat did purr. We did search for stars on this morn. The earth was still which was not the norm.

A storm was heard in the north. I got in my car and went to the mart to see Earl, the clerk. Earl did march one term at a fort. But he hurt his arm and went home. But he does not like to harp on that time. I got some corn and perch. I then did whirl out of the mart and went back to the barn. I drove past a church with a dark urn on a cart. The dark urn on the cart made me squirm and swirl like a harsh shark.

I hit the horn, and Barb came to the curb to help. She said I was first and gave me a start.