

Short a Real Sentences

1. Sal has a map and a tan.
2. The fat cat did yap at a rat.
3. The lad had jam, ham, and a yam.
4. The sad dad sat on the mat.
5. Tap the can, and pass the fan.
6. The mad cad, Al, is a pal.
7. Fan Sam and the lass.
8. On the pad is a bat, a cap, and a nag.
9. The ram ran, and the bag did sag.
10. Ban the bad cad who is lax.
11. Pat the pan, and add a dab of wax.
12. Ann is at the van with the man.

Short a Real Word Story

The man with a cap and bat sat the fan and yam on his lap in the cab. The cab was a gas van and had a mat and a map. Al, the man in the cab with a cap and bat, did not rap or nag or sass his dad or fax the tax to the lad with an ax, but he did take a nap.

Then he saw a cad with a bad tan who ran with a pad away from a rat. Then the man in the cab saw the cad jab the rat with a bag of wax.

A fat cat saw the rat. Off the fat cat went to get the rat. The rat saw the fat cat, and the rat jumped into the cab. Al, the man with a cap and bat who had a fan and yam on his lap, did gag and sag when he saw the rat in his cab.

Off fell the fan and yam from his lap. Al got his bat and did wag it at the rat who did not yap back. The rat did tap on Al's lap. Al was not lax. He did not nap. He took his hat and bat and got the fan and yam and paid his tab and ran from the gas van. Al ran and ran until he had to stop. I am a sap to let that rat make me go, but I did add it up, then ran.