Short o Nonsense Word Story

Non the lov is bom and pon. The nox of tob went to the nog bon. Then the roz got hold of a mon and gave it to the tock. After all this gop the wob had a quot, and that was all it took.

So then we wov and mot and gave it every thing we could. But now the wov would not gog. All I ever wanted to do was cog and cog on yot. And I would have if not for the lod.

I gave Non all the op, and still that wasn't enough. I had to vov all day, and still tob was not enough. So I gov the quock, and I roz the yock, too. We had seen it all. Off we went to see Mr. Zoz.

Mr. Zoz is a wog lop. I mean a very big wog lop. And he is also a jod cov. Think about that for a bit. So we see Mr. Zoz is in a tock hob, and we know that we are poz and nov. We get out a loz and yop it right over to him. He gets real nom and then he just gets up and gives a dod wop. Right there he just starts to fot and gos and quom. He wouldn't stop. He just keeps lon the sot and the von, and on and on he goes. I hope he is lop and nov one day.
