

Vowel Teams

augh eigh ea ou igh war wor
6 6 6 6 4 5 5

When the team ar is preceded by the sound /w/, ar usually makes the /or/ sound and is double underlined to indicate the second sound the team ar represents: worm.
5

When the team or is preceded by the sound /w/, or usually makes the /er/ sound and is double underlined to indicate the second sound the team or represents: work
5

The letter team ea makes the sound ay in three words: break, great, and steak. Mark these words by underlining ea and placing an x directly under the ea team. An x written under a letter or letter team indicates that the letter or letter team is representing a sound different from the sound it normally represents:

break, great, steak.
